Previous Week Market Review

The Nigerian domestic market maintained its bullish momentum, to close trading activities for the previous week in the green, as positive sentiment dominated in all four sessions surrounding the New Year break. This upward trajectory was fueled by increased buying in mid and large-cap stocks across major market sectors. Notable price appreciation was recorded in HONYFLOUR, FIDSON, ACCESSCORP, alongside 70 other tickers. Investors confidence in the local market remains upbeat as 2026 begins, driven by anticipation of an improved macro and micro-economic landscape. This collective optimism resulted in approximately ₦2,048 billion increase in market capitalization over the four-day period. Consequently, the ASI grew by 2,952.53 basis points in the previous week, representing an increase of +1.92% w/w, to close at 156,492.36 points. Similarly, the market capitalization was up by ₦2,047.58 billion, to settle at ₦99.94 trillion, reflecting a 2.09% growth.
